SUDDEN DEATH FINN AND

Of Councieman James Dudley Ware Sunday Morning.

Buried Yesterday With The Honors of The Knights of Pythias Order.

Mr. James Dudley Ware died Sunday morning at eleven o'clock from an attack of heart failure, following a spell of illness that had kept him in his bed most of the time for two months past. He became much worse Saturday, but the public was not apprised of the change in his condition and the news of his death came as a shock to his friends. Mr. Ware was a son of the late W. W. Ware and was in the 60 th Year of his age. He was prominent as a business man and represented the Second ward in the city council, having served in that capacity Several terms in recent years. Mr. Warej leaves two daughters, Misses Tony and Bettie Ware and two younger sons, Ffairleigh and Wallac Ware.

Funeral services were held by Evergreen Lodge, Knights of Phythias, of which he was a member, after Dr. W. L. Nourse had conducted a short prayer service at the family residence on South Virginia street the Second knylonding the Ware.

The honorary pall bearers were Messrs F. W. Dabney, E. M. Flack, J. T. Wall, E. B. Long, C. H. Bush, Geo. E. Gary, W. F. Garnett and Chas M. Meacham.

There were many floral tributes and a large procession of sympathetic if riends followed the body to its first first of the control of th

ANIMALS TRAINED TO RUN DOWN AND "ARREST" CRIMINALS.

Innovation to Be Tried in t uburbs of the Great French Cap ital—Is Patterned After Dog Police of Ghent.

Paris police of Ghent.

Paris police are keen, alert and energetic, but they have found themselves unequal to the task of rounding up the thieves and assassins which thrive, seemingly, as never before in her streets and the outlying districts. Conscious of the fact that they had reached the limit of efficiency on the part of the policeman of the genus houno, the progressive and resourceful prefere of police, M the police of the genus canise. Dogs, specially trained to the work, are to be enlisted on the force, and when they are fully trained and set to work it is expected they will soon have every venturesome thief and law-breaker litterally on the run, with every certainty of capture.

The idea of dog policemen came from Ghent, Belgium, where such a canine squad is said to be a perfect success. In former days Chent was

The police system of clear is first and training the personnel, but insufficient method which is responsible for the anarchy in many cities.

The dogs of Ghent's police force are born and reared to the profession. After the age of three months they are as carefully nurtured, fed and trained as carefully nurtured, fed and trained as carefully nurtured, fed and trained according to the common service of the police force.

The result is that they finally become automatons in the hands of their masters and totally indifferent to influences outside of their regular to the contract of their regular contracts and totally indifferent to influence outside of their regular.

DAYS ARE NUMBERED

ISTHMIAN CANAL SOUNDS DEATH WARRANT OF SAILING CRAFT.

Rapid Decline Already Noted in the Construction of the Wind-Pro-pelled Vessels—Some Big Boats Still Used.

Boats Still Used.

The handwriting is on the wall and the days of the American sailing ship are numbered. Every shoreeful of dirt are numbered. Every shoreeful of dirt structing the case is a warraing note of the inevitable, for as the cutting of the Suez canal destroyed the Indiamen and the fast freighter of far Eastern ports, the great ten feets and the Australian filters, so will the opening of the Panana trench deal a fatal blow at the last remnants of the sail-ing trade of America, optionized in this instance by the great fleet of "wind-jammers" that yearly rounds Cape florn.

Statistics now that unless marine architects grapple promptly with the

A Great Seven-Master of Modern Type, problem of Improving the designs of sailing ships, they will very soon be supplianted by the steamer in every supplianted by the steamer in every finding the sailing ships and the apparent-tion of sailing ships and the apparent-ty inevitable effacement of them eventually is looked upon as one of the most striking features of marine architecture in the twentieth century. While this applies to the shipping of the world at large, it is especially true of the merchant marine of the United States.

Despite the decline shown by statistics, some authorities still nurrure the

Despite the decline shown by statis-ites, some authorities still nutrue the notion that the sailer's day is not at its eventide, but that there is and will be a great sphere of usefulness for her. They admit that as an in-vestment her value has been greatly underpinad, but they contend that it would only require more effective creation of the content of the result of the content of the con-tent of the con-tent of the content of the con-tent of the con-tent of the content of the con-tent of the c fact that marine architects, encourared by capitalists, have been devoting their entire attention of late years to the neglect of the sall craft. They point out that, excepting a few leviathan sallers built in America and Germany within a decade, the general type of sallship today is identical with that of a generation ago.

There are arguments in favor of this view. It is an established fact that a steamhip today which is 30

majority of the sallers in use today are of that age or older, and are still expected to prove as satisfactory as they ever were. That the ingenuity of naval architects could do much for the merchant sall craft is undoubted and is plainly olvious from the metamorphosis of yeth.
In ballast and stillening the saller is as far behind the times as the old "high-wheeled" bietycle. Water ballast has not yet been successfully applied to her, and yet there seems to be no reason why some simple contrivance cannot be devised which would admit of her using it. As a rule the sallers of today have to use the ten and the saller is a since the saller

When the pros and cons on both sides have been heard, the whole sit uation is put in a word by the reit cration that architects must pay more attention to sailing models if the noble oid "wind-immer" is to be aswell from Day Joned' locker.

Open an Account for Baby

Suppose you deposit $1. a week the first year of baby's life. At the stort of the second year you increase the savings to $2. a week; the third year $3. a week. At the end of five years with compound interest you will have $843.82.

But that isn'c all. The science of saving once learned, you have started on the road to larget things.

Mr. H. W. Tibbs, local agent for the Southern Express Co., let loose two baskets of carrier pigeons Sunday morning at 8:20. After soaring around for a few minutes they made a straight shoot for Cincinnati, their home, and it was expected that they would reach Cincinnati in time for dinner. The distance on a bee line is said to be 225 miles.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Amica Salve known to all" writes J. G Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfull, short time." Best on earth for sores, burns and wounds. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's drug store
